

The Cardiff convention settled it. The Democrats of this district will have a walk-over next August. Cole and Salles make an invincible ticket.

THOMAS J. CLIVERUS, the murderer of Fannie Lillian Madison, his cousin, at Richmond, Va., will hang for his crime, the Supreme Court having affirmed the decision.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL GROSS has been doing good work in suppressing illicit distilling in this State. During the first year of his term he has made in the neighborhood of 500 arrests for a violation of the revenue laws.

HON. W. H. WADSWORTH tells the Washington correspondent of the Louisville Times that he has not yet decided whether he would make the race for congress again or not, and that the statement to the contrary was premature.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, now in session at Richmond, Va., has appointed a committee of seven to confer with a like committee of the M. E. Church, looking to a reunion of the two churches in 1888.

CONGRESSMAN W. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE has introduced a bill in Congress to establish a "Department of Agriculture and Industry." It will embrace a number of the existing bureaus and will be presided over by a cabinet officer at a salary of $8,000 per annum.

The victory won by Hon. Garrett S. Wall at the recent primary election clearly and forcibly demonstrates his strength as a candidate for Congress. It is doubtful whether the Democrats of this district can find any one who will make a stronger and better candidate than Judge Wall. In the primary, he easily defeated Hon. J. D. Kehoe, who has always had a strong following of earnest workers, and who is admitted to be one of the shrewdest politicians in this section of the State. None can present a better record as a Democrat than Judge Wall. Always true to the principles of his party, and an earnest and faithful worker in its ranks, he would certainly command the full vote of the party if nominated, and we feel confident he would prove a sure winner, too, against any opposition the Republicans might offer. His chances for the nomination now are very flattering, and with earnest and united work on the part of his friends throughout the district his success is assured.

No Such Thing as Hog Cholera.
Dr. Cyrus Edson, of New York, is reported as saying:
"There is no such thing as hog cholera. It is a minnow. The disease is defined as contagious, and is divided into three kinds: Diptheria, which is in the throat and glands of the neck; typhus fever, where the glands of the neck break down and form an unhealthy fluid containing pus, and lastly, typhoid, which is the most frequent, and is characterized by ulceration of the intestinal glands, producing large amounts of pus. All physicians agree that animals in which inflammation has produced pus are extremely dangerous for human food. Moreover, these diseases have a tendency to tuberculosis, a disease to which the hog is particularly liable. It is also a well-known fact that meat from animals having had tuberculosis will produce consumption in those eating it. The cause of all the trouble is that the farmers do not keep their hogs in a proper manner. The hogs are very susceptible to surrounding influences, and instead of being kept as clean as possible, the filthy condition of a hog-pen has become proverbial."

A. Haucke, Wm. Britton, W. J. Ramsey, Geo. Brown and Harry Curran, all Mayville "commercial tourists" were interviewed on their respective lines last week.
Several d. & a (drunk and disorderly) men Saturday night, but will be handsomely disposed of in Police Court this week. Two such double-distilled lightning balled on a primary election.
The most brilliant society event that has transpired here for some time was the reception given by the R. I. round dozen club of Ripley, Ohio, at the home of Miss Eleanor Howard, she being an honored member, last Friday evening. Those present were Misses Lucie and Jessie Curran, Ella Galbreath, Nellie Wiles, John W. Little, Little Snider, Lucy Miller, Belle Gilliland and Miss Sumner. This club was instituted last year or so past for the mutual improvement and advancement of the culinary art, and their work is remarkable. After doing justice to a bounteous repast, they never took leave of our place, May 10th, 1886.

GOVERNMENT WORK.

THE EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN IN THE DIFFERENT DEPARTMENTS.

Responsible Positions in the Treasury Department—In the Law Division—Interior Department—Postoffice Workers—State, War and Navy.

There are about 4,000 women employed by the government, and although the work is chiefly clerical they also value assistants in a variety of other occupations, many of which are comparatively new to women. The greatest number are employed in the treasury, which was the first department to make use of their services. The occasion arose during the late civil war, and was entirely a question of expediency and even necessity, in order to fill the large number of vacancies made by the enlistment of the employees.

Women were first employed as counters of currency, and soon afterward as clerks, copyists, etc. As counters of money—work requiring chiefly quickness of sight and deftness of hand—women have always excelled, and have been uniformly preferred to men. Their undoubted honesty has also contributed much to their value in this work. It is said by the officials in charge of the currency division that a case of dishonesty on the part of a woman has never occurred since their employment in the treasury.

TREASURY AND INTERIOR DEPARTMENTS. There are 1,349 women employees in the treasury department, including 400 in the bureau of engraving and printing. They are employed as corresponding clerks, accountants, stenographers, copyists, counters, librarians, and in some few instances as chiefs in charge of sections, their duties being supervisory. Some of the books kept by women are models of beauty and accuracy. In the bureau division, after several years had charge of the books containing the exact amount of currency issued, redeemed, destroyed and outstanding; also the amounts of daily currency redeemed and destroyed in the several states and territories. This involves a vast amount of detail and accuracy of accounts which it is difficult for the uninitiated to conceive of.

The annual report of the controller of the currency, with the bewildering columns of statistics, is almost exclusively the work of women clerks. In some of the auditor's office the women are obliged to have a knowledge of book-keeping as well as of mathematics. The difficult and responsible work of the redemption agency is done entirely by women. This division is devoted entirely to redeeming burned and mutilated money which is brought here under all sorts of strange and remarkable circumstances, from every part of the country, to be redeemed. Sometimes so badly defaced as to seem almost to defy identification. The most successful expert in this work has been here for twenty years, and has in that time saved many millions of dollars.

Another conspicuous example of ability, and also in quite a new line, is that of a woman employed in the law division of the bureau, and who prepares the briefs for the solicitor of internal revenue in the various cases arising out of violation of internal revenue laws. She is considered one of the best law clerks in the bureau, and is engaged upon the most difficult and complicated compromise cases.

The interior department employs 618 women as examiners of applications for patents, clerks, stenographers, typewriters, accountants, tracers of drawings, copyists, pasters, etc. The work of women as examiners of applications for patents deserves the highest commendation, since it requires a knowledge of physics, mathematics, chemistry and machinery—branches of study with which at one time women have only limited opportunities to become thoroughly acquainted, the smattering of science taught at the average girl's school being of little value for any practical use.

POSTOFFICE, STATE, WAR AND NAVY. The postoffice department employs 124 women, primarily in clerical work, but some branches of this work are of a difficult nature and require a peculiar fitness and class of qualifications. A knowledge of the modern languages and a complete and minute familiarity with localities are requisite in many departments. A lady in the dead letter division is the most skillful expert in deciphering misdirected and illegible letters in this country, and as illustrating her peculiar powers in this field she is called "the blind reader."

The state, war, and navy departments have fewer women in their employ than any of the others. A few women are employed as translators, but in this work, according to popular ideas, would be especially suited to the requirements and taste of women, few women possess a complete and minute knowledge of foreign languages. The official translator of each department is a man, and generally a foreigner. In the same connection it may be stated that it is a singular fact that in the occupations in which we would naturally expect women to excel, such as translators, botanists, etc., find no conspicuous cases of ability, while the universally acknowledged and notable instances of superiority are in those departments where we least would expect to find them at all, much less to find them taking high rank.

There are fifty-five women employed in the quartermaster's office in the war department, and about the same number assisting in the preparation of the "Official Records of the War of the Rebellion." In the navy department a few women are engaged in the work of the hydrographic office, in map drafting and tracing, and as telegraph operators, typewriters and clerks.

The agricultural department employs 112 women, including those engaged in the seed room. They are chiefly corresponding clerks, keeping an account of seeds sent to each senator, representative and delegate; also, the records of all applications for seeds, plants, shrubs, etc. Much of the work is manual, such as making seed bags, labeling and putting up seeds.

The government printing office, which is the largest establishment of this kind in the world, employs 1,300 women as stitchers and folders of pamphlets, gold-leaf ornamenters, operators of rollers, folding, and sewing machines, press feeders and compositors—New York Times.

Alloy of Silver and Aluminum. An alloy, consisting of one-third silver and two-thirds of aluminum, is employed in the manufacture of silverware in Paris. It is very hard and more easily pressed and engraved than silver-copper alloy. An alloy of equal parts of aluminum and silver is as hard as bronze.—Scientific Journal.

CAPT. THOMAS H. POTTER, of Greenup County, passed through town last night on his return home from the district convention at Carlisle yesterday. Speaking of the railroad, he says the right of way through that county will not cost as much as Colonel Child's estimate. This is encouraging and shows a commendable spirit among the people of Greenup.

Destructive Storm at Kansas City.
A dispatch from W. B. Phister, of Kansas City, this morning, says that a terrible storm visited that place yesterday demolished many large buildings, and causing great loss of life. One hundred persons are reported killed. The bridge across the Missouri river was blown down. It cost $5,000,000.

A Secret Marriage.

Some time last March it was quietly intimated to the BULLETIN that Mr. Geo. T. Byrne, then a clerk at Hunt & Doyle's dry goods store, and Miss Alice Hanson, of the city of Madison, Wis., had been secretly married at Aberdeen, Mr. Byrne was hunted up and asked about the matter. He completely "surprised" at the report and vehemently protested that there was no truth in it at all, if he knew "anything about it." Notwithstanding all this, later developments show that George was only trying to keep the matter a secret. The following certificate sets the question at rest, and is conclusive evidence that the BULLETIN's information was correct:

Attest: Greenup County, March 9, 1886.
This certifies, that, by virtue of a marriage contract by and between Mr. George T. Byrne and Miss Alice Hanson, of the county of Madison, State of Kentucky, they have this day, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, acknowledged themselves as man and wife.

COLE AND SALLEE.

"Feast of Flowers and a Plow of Soil."

Pursuant to a call of the district committee the delegates, representing the Democracy of the Fourteenth Judicial District of Kentucky, met in the opera house at Carlisle, Nicholas County May 11th, 1886, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

Convention called to order by Hon. T. J. Glenn, of Nicholas. John A. Campbell, of Nicholas, was elected temporary chairman and the officers of the Democratic party of the district were sworn in. Hon. H. Duley, of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, responded and W. P. Maxey, representing the Mayville Bulletin, assisted. On motion, the temporary organization was adopted as permanent. On a call of counties the following delegates responded:

Mason: W. P. Coons, J. W. Alexander, Dr. Jas. Shackelford, C. D. Newell, C. L. Sallee, W. P. Maxey, J. Wes. Lee, Louis Zoch, Jas. W. Fitzgerald, Louis Ross, J. F. Perry, S. D. Clarke, Ben. D. Parry, L. W. Galbreath, Deane Fitzgerald, A. K. Marshall, Sam Raymond, G. S. Wall, Dr. A. H. Wall, R. B. Lovel.

Fleming: Hon. W. J. Hendrick, M. W. Smith, T. M. Fleming, J. T. Alexander, John Williams, George P. Dudley, Hon. Jos. M. Alexander, H. Duley, A. J. Allen. Greenup: J. Davidson, Thos. H. Paynter. Lewis: W. C. Halbert. Nicholas: P. T. Throop, T. J. Glenn, J. R. Conley, Jas. R. Long, J. T. Turley, E. Bradford, J. C. Pryor, J. B. Durham, G. W. Borden, Deane Fitzgerald, J. C. Mitchell, A. Hildreth, M. R. Baffery. Rowan County being called, Col. Z. T. Young arose and stated that Rowan County had held a convention and appointed delegates, but none were present; that if it met the approval of the convention he would cast the vote of Rowan County; whereupon, a motion unanimously prevailed to seat him as delegate. The convention then adjourned to meet 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Convention called to order at half-past one o'clock. A communication from Hon. George T. Halbert was read, requesting that his name as a candidate should not be presented and that A. E. Cole be unanimously nominated by the convention for Circuit Judge of the Fourteenth Judicial District, assuring the convention that he would heartily support Judge Cole and give the Democracy of the district his sincere co-operation. The communication was received with prolonged applause. The chairman then announced that the convention was ready for nominations.

A brief pause followed during which the large number of delegates seemed to revel in the anticipation of the pleasant work before them. Hon. W. J. Hendricks of Fleming, arose and in a brilliant speech presented the name of Hon. A. E. Cole, of Fleming County, for Circuit Judge. The nomination was seconded by Hon. T. H. Paynter, who made a great and able manner, deservedly complimentary to Judge Cole.

On motion of Dr. Jas. Shackelford, of Mason, the nomination of A. E. Cole was made unanimous.

Judge W. P. Coons, of Mason, presented Jas. H. Sallee, of Mason County, for Commonwealth's Attorney in a speech of which the delegates from Mason were justly proud and which of itself, made sure the nomination and election of both Mr. Sallee and Judge Cole. The nomination was seconded by John Morgan of Nicholas, who desired it understood that it was the expressed will of the Democracy of Nicholas County, that the Democratic banner of this district bear the name of Jas. H. Sallee, of Mason.

A motion by Col. Z. T. Young, that the nomination of Jas. H. Sallee be made unanimous, prevailed amid loud applause. The following committee was appointed to wait upon Judge Cole and Mr. Sallee and notify them of their unanimous nomination, and conduct them before the convention: Hon. J. M. Alexander, of Fleming; Thos. H. Paynter, of Greenup; W. C. Halbert, of Lewis; Col. Z. T. Young, of Rowan; J. T. Morgan, of Nicholas, and Jos. F. Ferrie, of Mason.

On motion of Hon. R. B. Lovel, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the conduct of Z. T. Young, of Rowan County, in withdrawing from office for Commonwealth's Attorney at the time, and under the circumstances he did so, that this convention by the spirit of true and sincere Democracy, and loyalty to his party, that this convention commend his manly action, and recognize in him a Democrat of the true type, ever ready to sacrifice his personal ambitions for the welfare of his party, a lawyer of excellent ability, and a man of sterling honor, generous nature and absolute integrity.

On further motion of R. B. Lovel, the convention Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention, embodying the resolution regarding Hon. Z. T. Young, be published in the Democratic papers of the district, and by request, in the Courier-Journal, of Louisville.

The committee appointed and amid enthusiastic applause Judge Cole was conducted by Hon. Jos. M. Alexander, and James H. Sallee by Colonel Z. T. Young, to the stage and presented to the Chairman, who received them with unfeigned satisfaction. The presentation of Judge followed by the introduction and acceptance of James H. Sallee of the no less responsible duty was so fitting, so pleasant, so eminently satisfactory to the delegates present, representing the will of the united Democracy of each county in the district, that we forbear description, for none who were absent can know and appreciate it as did those who were present.

In response to loud calls, Colonel Z. T. Young, in a brief, brilliant and earnest speech explained his reasons for withdrawing, endorsed the proceedings of the convention and pledged his hearty support to the nominees, and urged the party to rally round the standard so wisely raised.

Judge G. S. Wall responded to calls and addressed the convention, setting forth in a strong light his claims to a seat in Congress, and avowed his ability to fill it, notwithstanding his slim figure as commented upon by Judge Savage.

Judge Savage was called to follow Judge Wall, and delivered an earnest speech in behalf of his claims for Congressional honors. Both gentlemen were listened to attentively and warmly applauded.

Hon. Jos. M. Alexander being called, responded in one of his ringing speeches, which bears the stamp of pure Democracy and never fails to please. He was loudly applauded. In ringing tones he closed with the exclamation: "Hear ye winds and give ear, O ye Republicans, to what the Democracy this day has done! Believe and tremble!"

L. W. Galbreath moved to adjourn. Jos. M. Alexander moved to amend, by adjourning the Democracy of the Fourteenth Judicial District of Kentucky to meet at the poles on the first Monday in August, 1886. Accepted. The convention then adjourned with pleased expressions and hopes animated by the assurance of victory.

Soiree Musicales at Mayfield.

NOTES.

Miss Lucy Mayall sang very sweetly. Miss Lizzie Parry favored the party with some well executed accompaniments on the piano.

Cliff Worthington has a very fine soprano voice, and did the nursery song very nicely. Miss Zebie Laytham was encored.

Misses Clarke and Piper, and Messrs. Davis and Roff were a winning vocal card, and were handsomely bouquetted for their singing.

The members of the class, some twenty-eight in number, represent not only the best material, but also many of the best families in the community.

Smith & Nixon, Cincinnati, sent a good upright piano for the use of the concert, the tone of which was much complimented by musical connoisseurs.

Prof. Frost gave some exquisite selections on the piano, among them the Honey Moon Waltz, The Last Rose of Summer, (by request), and his Bicycle Gallop.

Charlie Wheeler's song with guitar accompaniment was vociferously applauded, the audience endorsing the sentiment, "If you want honey, You must have money."

The concert altogether was a great success and will be repeated, with slight change in programme, on to-morrow (Thursday) night at the Baptist Church in Washington. A rare treat is in store for the villagers.

Prof. Meek's voice is large and vibrant, dramatic in quality, sympathetic and flexible. It is even in the registers and clear and full in timbre. All the niceties of technical art are as finished as thorough practice and study can make them, and his enunciation was remarkably perfect, indeed.

With its proverbial certainty, 191st Grand monthly drawing of the world-renowned Louisiana State Lottery came off at noon, on Tuesday, April 15th, 1886, at New Orleans. The lottery is conducted by Gen'l A. G. T. Beauregard, of the Louisiana Lottery Commission, and the result is briefly chronicled thus: The 191st Grand monthly drawing of the world-renowned Louisiana State Lottery came off at noon, on Tuesday, April 15th, 1886, at New Orleans.
